

De Colores!

Thanks for your willingness to consider serving on a Cursillo team. Those who serve find that it is a wonderful way not only to share their faith and be God's instrument in helping others to deepen their relationship with Him, but also to deepen their own relationship with God. The foundation of Cursillo is palanca, and so as you offer to share your talents, it is important that you have a clear understanding of the commitment and sacrifice of time that are involved in the team experience.

Before sending in your application, please be aware of the following points:

1. Calls inviting people to serve on teams will be made by the rector(a), generally several weeks prior to the beginning of team meetings so that arrangements can be made to eliminate scheduling conflicts.
2. There are nine weeks of team formation prior to the Cursillo weekend. Team members are expected to attend all meetings unless prior arrangements are made with the rector(a).
3. Meetings begin with mass at 7:00 and generally last until 10:30 - 11:00
4. First-time team members will serve in the position of table leaders.
5. During the weeks of team formation, team members are asked to do palanca for one another and for the candidates who will be coming to them.
6. Understanding that Cursillo is sponsored by the Roman Catholic Church, it is important that, during the weekend, team members support the Church's positions on marriage and the sanctity of human life as well as other moral and sacramental teachings.
7. A baptized Roman Catholic who has formally joined another church is at this time not able to serve on a Cursillo team.
8. Team members are asked to attend the Post-Cursillo meeting on the Tuesday following the weekend. All are also encouraged to attend the Ultreya following the weekend.
9. Team members are encouraged to be willing to meet with a new reunion group for a few meetings to make sure they get started off right.
10. Team members are asked to contact the candidates from their table after the weekend to encourage them to become involved.

St. Francis tells us that it is in giving that we receive. We thank you for being willing to give of your time and talents through team service and encourage you to turn your application in to the Cursillo office.

In God's love,
Team Selection Committee
